PETITIONING THE COURT

Mr. Ruiz has a poly-substance abuse history which includes marijuana, heroin, phencyclidine, alcohol, cocaine and xanax. Although Mr. Ruiz's mandatory drug tests have all come back negative for illegal substances, a modification is recommended as a precautionary measure to allow the Probation office to conduct urine testing and provide immediate treatment in the event of a relapse.

On April 24, 2008, Mr. Ruiz agreed to the proposed modification. During the meeting, Mr. Ruiz declined to speak with an attorney about the proposed modification. He then signed the Waiver of Hearing Form.

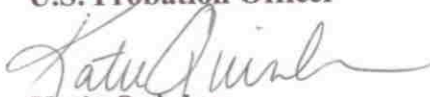

On April 29, 2008, we spoke with Assistant U.S. Attorney (AUSA) Louis Lappen, who voiced no objections to the proposed plan.
